Winter Geese and Woodpecker Special 2024

2024-11-03 ~ 2024-11-09

Report by Carl Downing

Limosa's November birdwatching tour to Hungary focused on finding two of Europe's rarest geese - the beautiful Red-breasted Goose and the endangered Lesser White-fronted, plus a lot more to look at in the country's celebrated Hortobágy National Park which, for good reasons, is a World Heritage site! Other major targets included Greater Spotted and Eastern Imperial Eagles, Saker Falcon, Great Bustard and the amazing Wallcreeper, plus thousands of Cranes all of which were seen. Up to 30 Long-eared Owls were seen at their daytime roosts and seven of eight species of woodpecker, Short-toed Treecreeper and Hawfinch were also seen extremely well. Why not join us in 2025 for what promises to be another superb late autumn birding tour!

Diary

Day 1 - Sunday, November 03, 2024

The group flight landed 20 minutes early in Budapest, and with immigration and baggage reclaim being quick and efficient, we met our guide for the week, Gabor Simay and headed to the car park to pick up our vehicle. Crested Lark in the car park was the first bird on the list, but we were soon on our way to the first destination of the week, the Kiskunsági Nemzeti Park. Our primary goal here was to see Great Bustard which we eventually found in a group of 25. Other species included up to 12 White-tailed Eagles, a pair of Eastern Imperial Eagles, Hen and Western Marsh Harriers and excellent scope views of several Hawfinch. After a great start to the trip, we then headed to our Lodge on the edge of the Hortobogyi Nemzeti Park which will be our base for the next four nights. Dinner was delicious and we're now ready for an early start tomorrow.

Day 2 - Monday, November 04, 2024

Our second day in Hungary proved to be as productive as the first. We saw up to four Lesser White-fronted Geese; Saker was seen late afternoon at the site we had also tried earlier in the morning. A pair of Ferruginous Ducks were seen on a productive pool alongside Black-necked and Red-necked Grebes and five Water Rails in the open. An obliging Greater Spotted Eagle was perched high in a tree where we also saw several white-headed forms of Long-tailed Tit. On our way back to the lodge, we stopped at a Long-eared Owl roost where at least 20 birds were seen. We have decided to return there another day in better light to take some photos.

Day 3 - Tuesday, November 05, 2024

Our first location of the morning was the local Lidl's car park where we saw and photographed a very obliging Syrian Woodpecker. Next up was another Long-eared Owl roost with 9 birds visible and, with better light, better photo opportunities. From there we headed out to a wetland where our trip list grew noticeably. However, most notable were the two immature Sakers that were flying about in front of us. A search for Dotterel was unsuccessful, but we did get excellent views on an immature Eastern Imperial Eagle. Our final stop of the day was the location where 25,000 Common Cranes come to roost each night. This truly was a spectacular sight, and cranes were visible as far as the eye could see.

Day 4 - Wednesday, November 06, 2024

At dinner the night before we heard that two Red-breasted Geese had been found so this was to be our priority this morning. However, the geese do not roost at the site so before heading in that direction we checked a few other areas for geese. In one small flock we found has no less than six Lesser White-fronted Geese. We then headed off in search of the Red-breasted Geese. As geese flocks started to arrive at the site, we checked each one carefully for something smaller. No such luck, but after about an hour of this we received a phone call telling us that they had been found on another part of the reserve. Off we headed again and almost as soon as we arrived, we found the two together amongst a huge flock of Greylags and Greater White-fronted Geese. After lunch we checked some local woodland and this delivered Middle Spotted, Great Spotted, and Black Woodpeckers as well as an obliging Short-toed Treecreeper. It was then back to the wetlands for more geese and our new site also had Tundra Bean Goose, two Barnacle Geese, Little Gull and a late Whiskered Tern.

Day 5 - Thursday, November 07, 2024

This morning, we left the Bibic Nature Lodge for the last time. Our four nights' stay were warm and very comfortable with excellent food. Our first stop was a small reed-bed where we finally managed to see our first Penduline Tits. Two male Bearded Reedlings also performed well, and we obtained some excellent photos of both these target species. From here it was a two hour drive north to a quarry where Wallcreepers are known to overwinter. It was a little bit of a trek up to the quarry, but it wasn't too long before we were watching (and photographing) two individuals at very close range. Other species of note were Black and Middle Spotted Woodpeckers. From here we then headed to the Zemplén Mountains and as dusk began to fall, we had our first attempt at Ural Owl. Although we did hear one at close range, it refused to show itself.

Day 6 - Friday, November 08, 2024

This morning, we had a pre-breakfast excursion in search (again) of Ural Owl. However, the woodlands were very quiet, so we headed back to the hotel for breakfast. Off out again, we got 10 metres down the road and a very obliging Grey-headed Woodpecker landed in a tree at the side of the road. Our next stop was a woodland trail in search of White-backed Woodpecker and although this failed to show we did finally get excellent views of a Ural Owl. Eurasian Eagle-Owl was next and that also showed well, sat on a ledge at a disused quarry. Our final stop of the day brought us Lesser Spotted Woodpecker, our seventh woodpecker of the trip. Maybe tomorrow we can see our eighth!

Day 7 - Saturday, November 09, 2024

It was our final morning in the Zemplén Hills before we had to head to the airport for our flight home. We still hadn't seen White-backed Woodpecker so we had just one more opportunity to look it, but it was not to be. However, the morning was not wasted and during our walk through the local woodlands we added our second Lesser Spotted Woodpecker, this time a male, plus Middle and Great Spotted Woodpeckers. Marsh Tits came thick and fast, and we recorded our first Coal Tit of the tour. Our farewells to our local guide, Gabor, were said at the airport. He had delivered an amazing quality (and quantity) of birds throughout the week, and I very much look forward to returning to Hungary again soon.
